

Burkett: '68 Harvest Queen

Belle Glade Beauty Is Crowned

Crying for joy, Pat Burkett, sixteen-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Burkett, 1601 SE Ave. K, Place, accepted the judges decision naming her the 16th Annual Harvest Queen, Friday night.

Sponsored by the local Junior Chamber of Commerce, the panel of five judges deliberated more than thirty minutes before selecting the Belle Glade High School Junior from eight finalists, who in turn were chosen from a field of 54 Glades area contestants.

Runnersup for the title were Barbara Meeks, a local high school senior, and Pam Urary, a junior from Pahokee High School.

The program was originally slated to begin at 8 p. m. however, lighting problems threatened to ruin the show, according to Ray Alston, Pageant Co-chairman. Rev. Richard Y. Roseman, pastor of St. Peter's Episcopal Church, was co-chairman with Alston.

Channel five cameramen didn't arrive till starting time, said Alston, and when they plugged into the stage our special lighting and effects equipment blew their fuses. Extension cords finally had to be used by the cameramen.

Also, dry ice was to have been mixed with boiling water to create a cloud effect of the stage and colored lights were to have accented the vegetables, said Alston, but without the cloud effect the vegetable "clouds" stood out like sore thumbs.

The real letdown was that over 150-man-hours had been put into preparing the stage for the queen contest. Fifty man-hours were used to put up the decorations for the Talent Night.

Master of ceremonies for the queen contest was Robert (Bob) C. Lee, who announced the winner of the Talent Contest, held Thursday night. Miss Lynell (Cooley) Drayton was the winner and the runnersup position was tied between Coletta Carpenter and Judy Todd.

Miss Barbara Ellis, 18, was selected by the queen contestants for the "Miss Congeniality" award.

About 460 attended the Talent night and around 1500 came to the queen contest, said Alston, who wanted to express his thanks also to the Pepsi-Cola people for furnishing cold drinks for the contestants backstage.

Spring Gardening In Florida

By Harvey Sharpe

In spring time are like some fabled young ladies both take on annual rings. But trees are different because they can't become engaged, quarrel and return their rings.

However, trees can become unhappy and sick if they can't get food to maintain their annual growth ring. So to keep your trees from becoming growing rings, feed them.

Like humans, trees need a hearty breakfast after a long winter nap.

Feeding trees is simple. Start by digging a trench or a length of 3/4 inch pipe.

For trees with trunks less than 10 inches in diameter, punch holes under the entire canopy 12 inches deep at 18-inch intervals and apply three pounds of a garden fertilizer in the holes. Two applications per year are recommended. One now and another in the fall.

For trees larger than six inches in trunk diameter apply five pounds per tree.

Juniors On The Rampage

During the week of March 18-23, the swinging juniors of our school sponsored Junior Week. Everyone cooperated one-hundred percent. The plans for the week were as follows:

Monday—Dress-up Day

Tuesday—Slave Day

Wednesday—Twin Day

Thursday—Rough-dry Peacock Day

Friday—Turn About Day

To explain in detail: Monday everyone came to school looking their very best. Even the boys of 11-1 homeroom cooperated. Tuesday was the boys' day to relax from carrying books and lunch trays. They loved every bit of it, but I don't think the girls did.

Wednesday everyone chose someone to dress like. They all looked lovely. Thursday was the funniest day of the juniors' week. They really showed their creativity by making placards, streamers, flowers, and you name it. It was silly but fun. Friday was the day for girls to take the place of boys, courtesy wise, (open doors, carry books, etc.) Friday afternoon the juniors had an assembly program to wrap up their week, displaying their talent. There were songs, dances (creative and modern), skits and a little bit of everything.

The purpose of this week was to raise money for the local trip. We would like to Junior Class to take an educational trip to the Lake Shore area.

Let's all congratulate the Junior Class for their concerted effort in making the first Junior Week in Lake Shore's history successful.

When you are about to clean your room attach a small paper bag to your apron or jeans. Into it you can drop string, buttons, pins, clips, and other "recycled" items.

For a recently cleaned closet, remove the wrapper from a bar of soap with a wet. Tie a ribbon around the top and hang the soap from a hook in your closet.

When you redecorate your room, the waste basket needs a new look. Cover it with gift paper in a gay print and pretty colors. The same paper can be used in drawers and on shelves, giving a bright, new look to your room.

Soap that's too small to use doesn't need to be wasted. Just drop the pieces in a bag by sewing two washcloths together. When the bag is full, sew the ends together and use as a "soaping" washcloth.

Don't throw away a way too near-empty nail polish bottle. Combine all the polish in one bottle, to the shade desired, and add some nail polish thinner. Practical—and fun.

To save time and a crumb when you're slicing a cake, use a piece of thread instead of a knife. It will give you a neat slice. Try it.

Q. Why is it that my hands get more chapped than my friend's? I do the same things they do and am outside the same amount of time as they are. I'm using hand cream to soften my skin and it seems to have some effect. But I was just curious to know why I suffer from this problem more than they do.

A. How handy are you about the house? Do you wash dishes for your mother? Do you vacuum and dust? Do you help with the heavy cleaning? All these activities contribute to skin dryness and chapping. In fact, household chores rank third after blustering weather and indoor heating as prime causes of dry skin on hands.

Why? Because outdoors the skin occurs when you scrub and rub. This abrasion busts your skin and dries out rapidly. Every girl has her own individual "threshold" of dryness, and the progression to it is her own rate of speed. Skin dryness occurs first whenever the skin is thinner—and at this time of your life, this means your hands. The next driest parts of your body are usually the tops of your feet, the back of your hands and your elbows.

Even though dry skin may look tough and feel rough, it is as absorbent as a blotter. That's why hand cream is effective—it penetrates to supply badly needed moisture and glands.

Helpful Hints Susan, Hospital Aide

By: Alice Colver

Susan, Hospital Aide is the story of a young lady, who's a sophomore in college, and the things she experienced as a hospital aide at a medical center in New York.

The author of Susan, Hospital Aide is the mother of three, a wife and a writer. She wrote many books for young ladies to read, some of the things she experienced while traveling around the country with her family. Alice Colver was inspired to write this story when she met Susan McCoy at a hospital she was in. She saw Susan and the seemed to be so enlightened by her summer vacation at the medical center until Miss Colver couldn't resist this opportunity to write.

The story began as Susan was first finishing her packing for her summer vacation. Her roommate, Lynn, was sprawled across the bed reading a magazine. Susan hadn't decided what she was going to do over the summer, but Lynn had.

Susan looked out of her window and saw Don, her next door neighbor, so she took her bag down, she assumed that Don had come to take her home. Don had come to take Susan home so they left.

On their way home Susan told Don that she applied for a position at a hospital, a medical center, but she hadn't received a reply. Don told her that he would be stationed near the center.

When they arrived home, Susan greeted her family and they were going to dinner. While they were eating Susan received a call from the director at the medical center. She was to check into the dormitory no later than six o'clock Sunday afternoon.

Susan checked into the dormitory and one of her old friends, Meta, showed her around. After they finished dinner the cafeteria, Meta introduced Susan to Dick Horst. Dick acted very shy (this surprised Susan) and finally said "hello".

The Election Committee this year will be headed by Sally Cameron, as Chairman of the group, and her co-workers are Gloria Butts, Edna Grayson, Edna Johnson and George Myrick. This committee will be held responsible for two separate assemblies to be held on April 5 and 8. Election ballots will also be handled by this committee.

The election events for this year are as follows: Filing Week—March 18-22. Campaign Week—April 1-5. Screening Week—March 23-27. Assembly—April 5 & 8. Election Day—April 9.

Chapman—Mr. Charles Todd and Parliamentarian—Mr. G. M. The club's main purpose is to furnish a scholarship each year for students who wish to enter college and are unable to do so.

Don't forget the play is to be presented on April 18 & 19, tickets will be on sale soon! Don't forget plans, to attend now! It's really going to be a hit!

Enriched Foods

When you use the word "enriched" on bread, flour, and cereal products, it means that iron, riboflavin, niacin, and thiamine are added. Highly refined cereal foods are enriched to restore levels of these four nutrients to the amount found in the whole grain, or in excess of whole grain levels.

Outstanding performances were done by Robert Key who took second place in the high jump and broad jump, and Bruce Williams (Hearties) who took first place in the mile and 880 yard run. The team has predicted that they will be ready for their next meet to take first place soon.

When it was about two weeks before Susan was to go home when Dick asked her to go walking with him. Dick told her that he had waited so long that he could see just what type of girl Susan was.

When it was time for Susan to leave the center, Don came to pick her up. He told her that he was her "Mother" today (her mother was supposed to pick her up) and this angered Susan. Susan was tired of Don acting as if he was her mother or so Don told Susan that he would be anything

A GREAT SHOW—

If you missed the 15th annual Harvest Queen Talent Contest, Thursday, March 23, then you missed a show better than any special you are likely to see on television soon.

More important, you missed some of the good teenagers in our community as they put their best foot forward. The "other kind" used to be the rarity and so made news and people read about them. Now days you sometimes have to look hard to find a story complimenting the sincere student who will someday become a working part of American society.

Judges for the event were the Hon. Donald P. Kohl, Palm Springs Waddy Batson, National Director of Florida Jaycees, Melbourne; and Mrs. Fred Holtoff, choir director, Lake Park.

Winner of the contest was seventeen-year-old Lynell Diane Drawdy, a senior at Belle Glade HI School.

68-69 Season Is Established By Commission

Florida's 1968-69 hunting season for resident game birds and animals was established by the Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission at its meeting in Jacksonville on March 28, according to W. B. Copeland, Chairman.

The framework is basically the same as last year. In the First, Second Fourth and Fifth Districts the season opens one-half hour before sunrise November 9 and closes one-half hour after sunset January 5. In the Third District (Northwest Florida) the season opens one week later, November 16, and closes January 19. Quail and squirrel season remains open until February 23 in all districts except the Third, where it closes March 2.

The Commission also established an archery hunting season to open September 14 and continue through September 29. The archery season is statewide except for Dade and Broward counties, Palm Beach County south of State Road 80, Monroe County south of the Loop Road, and that portion of Hendry County located east of Levee L-1 and L-2.

According to the Commission, the areas from the archery season include the Everglades which is not adaptable to the usual concepts of bowhunting. At the Jacksonville meeting the Commission removed the game animal classification from wild hogs in Levy County and also provided that Levy County would be closed to bear hunting during the statewide open season.

The Commission established a special deer and bear hunting season for DeSoto, Hardee, Manatee and Sarasota counties to open November 9 and continue through November 17, and to reopen December 21 and continue through January 5. The turkey hunting season in Hardee, Manatee and Sarasota counties will be the same as the remainder of the First District November 9-January 5.

Other changes in the 1968-69 hunting regulations provide for a turkey hunting season in Madison County from November 9 through January 5, a new during the spring gobbler season plus the establishment of a still hunting area in Levy County. The special one-day deer season in Gilchrist and that portion of Levy County between State Road 337 and 339 was eliminated. The 1968-69 season for this area will coincide with the Second District.

The spring turkey gobbler season for 1968-69 will open March 9 through March 23 in that portion of the state located south of State Road 50 and March 22 through April 6 in that portion located north of State Road 50. Only bearded gobbles will be legal during the spring season.

The 1968-69 daily and possession limits for resident game animals and birds remained unchanged and hunters will be allowed a daily bag of two deer, two turkeys during the fall season and one gobbler during the spring season, two grey squirrels, two fox squirrels, 12 quail, one bear and one wild hog in areas open for wild hog hunting.

Take care of any tree on the lot where you plan to build some. It is often easier to start new one.
